

Jane Austen Trail

ALTON

② 4 HIGH STREET

The home of William Curtis, Jane's Alton doctor whom she called her "Alton Apothecary".

③ 10 HIGH STREET

The site of the Bank of (Henry) Austen, Gray & Vincent between 1806 and 1812. Henry Austen was Jane's brother and the bank handled some of her correspondence between Alton and London.

⑤ 74 HIGH STREET

The home of Mr. Newman, apothecary and surgeon, whom Jane visited with a friend in 1811. Afterwards she wrote some humorous verse about the visit.

⑧ 64 THE BUTTS

This house, which was the home of James Venham, was the only building at this end of the Parish of Alton in the early 19th Century.

① 1 HIGH STREET

The home of William and Rebecca Parker Terry. Jane records dining with her friend Rebecca after she had been widowed.

④ THE SWAN HOTEL & 31-33 HIGH STREET

The Swan Hotel & 31/33 High Street (B.H.Colby, Drapers) Jane used the coach which stopped at this coaching inn when she travelled to London. She bought a cloak from the drapers.

⑥ 89 HIGH STREET

The Dyer family who lived here worked on the cottage at Chawton before Jane, her mother and sister came to live there.

⑦ 106-110 HIGH STREET

The home of James Hinton Baverstock between 1811 and 1815 and subsequently let to Jane's brother, Captain Francis Austen, R.N., for two years.

NOTES:

- A31 underpass has steps - not suitable for wheelchairs.
- Distance from 1 High Street to roundabout approx $\frac{3}{4}$ mile
- Distance from roundabout to Chawton House approx $\frac{3}{4}$ mile

